Happy late Thanksgiving! What a blessing November was for us, as we spent time with my family this Thanksgiving in Minnesota. We are always so amazed to reflect on the faithful goodness of our God. It seems that every year, we have more and more to be thankful for, yet we know that every year He has been equally as good to us as He has always been. We hope that this Thanksgiving was a time for you to also meditate on the blessings of God in your own life, and to ask yourself Christ's question, "I gave, I gave Myself for Thee, what hast thou given to me?" Are you living your life out as a thank you letter to the One Who has given you everything?

Celina and I have still been traveling many miles, but have had less of a busier schedule with missions conferences coming to an end. We have had several more churches take us on for support, and every time those calls seem to come just at a perfect time. We are currently at 44% of our support, and continue to pray for 50% by the beginning of January. God is being very Faithful to provide the needs to fulfill what He has called us to! We were also at a church in Indiana where a little girl in children's church made a profession of faith, and we praise the Lord for that!

Thank you so much for being our prayer warriors and supporters in the ministry to Mozambique. DEUS E BOM (God is Good)!

We included some pictures of us visiting the Ark Encounter and the Creation Museum for which we received free tickets from two different people to go to each! Praise the Lord for His provision with this!

Prayer Requests/Praise

1. Salvation of those to whom we have shared Christ.
2. Growth of new converts.
3. Calling forth of more laborers, specifically during these missions conferences.
4. More contacts of pastors in Mozambique and paved roads for a bus route.
5. Staying encouraged in the Lord and staying faithful.
6. More laborers in Honduras—teachers, bus workers, seminary students (where Celina's parents serve)
7. We want to PRAISE God for His GRACE which has been so evident recently!

In Christ,
